

NOTES:

- Revisions are in red.
- There are two telephone rings at the beginning of the audio file. When the User clicks on the “Call Marty” button, the User should hear these rings, as if Marty’s phone is ringing. As soon as Marty says ‘Hello’, his picture should appear, as if he picked up. [Let’s discuss this. If it works, great! If not, we’ll can it.]

Hello! It’s Marty the SMARTIE!!! And here is your question:

What...is...debt? [Question 1]

What...are...assets? [Question 2]

What...is...a budget? [Question 3]

When you think you know the answer, press the red button to record it. When you’re done, press the green button to send it to me.”

[If player gets it right]:

You are soooo right! Pick a SMARTI Card to see what you’ve won! Bye for now!

[If player gets it wrong]:

Oopsie.

Debt is when you owe someone money. [Answer to Question 1]

Assets are things you own that are valuable. [Answer to Question 2]

A budget is a plan for how to spend money. [Answer to Question 3]

Better luck next time!
